Conditions of Enrolment

By signing this enrolment form you are acknowledging that you:

- Agree to abide by the Statutes, Regulations, Rules and Policies and such other conditions as may be stipulated by Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWVA) from time to time.
- Understand that the RWVA is required to release details of your enrolment and other student information (including academic performance) to the Department of Training and Workforce Development and/or any other state or government department upon their official request. RWVA will not otherwise disclose such information without your consent unless required or authorised by law
- Understand that horses are at times unpredictable and can cause injuries, and that you will follow instruction from supervisors at all times. You also acknowledge that whilst RWVA takes all care, it at no times accepts responsibility for any injuries or damage that may occur to you or your property during the period of enrolment.
- Will undertake all training and assessments when required, and that all work submitted for assessment will be your own and accurately referenced.
- Have until 30 November 2011 to complete the qualification, however every endeavour will be made to complete prior to November 30, 2010.
- that Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWVA) has the right to use any photographs taken in the course of the training program for promotional purposes and that the promotional material then remains the property of RWVA
